Kyushu University Hospital (Japan), St. Luke's Medical Center Quezon City (Philippines), Hue University of Medicine and Pharmacy (Vietnam)	We held an event to introduce the training program at KUH to overseas doctors. Past trainees from Vietnam and the Philippines introduced their experiences at KUH and talked about how they have fed back the knowledge and experience they gained to their clinical practice after returning to their countries. There were many questions from the audience, and we understood that there were many overseas doctors who were interested in the training in Japan.
