

【Event】 The 7th Saga University Surgical Video Conference	【Comments】 In order to improve the surgical technique in laparoscopic surgery, the Saga University surgical video conference is held every 3 to 4 months. They discuss surgical technique with showing unedited video. This conference contributes to improve the surgical technique in laparoscopic surgery. St. Mary's Hospital joined us for the first time from Kurume City without any technical problems.
【Date】 2017.01.31
【Venue】 Saga University (Japan), Saga-ken Medical Center Koseikan (Japan), Karatsu Red Cross Hospital (Japan), Oda Hospital, Yuaikai, (Japan), Takagi Hospital, Kouhoukai (Japan), Kurume St.Mary's Hospital (Japan)

Teleconference view at St. Mary's Hospital.	Two monitors that show sites and a surgery video.
Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital	Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital

A presented movie.	A movie explained by annotation system.
Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital	Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital

Teleconference view at Saga University.	Monitor shows 6 sites.
Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital	Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital