

【Event】 Remote Surgical Education for Russia	【Comments】 We conducted a remote conference between Russian National Medical Research College and Oita University. Russia, Oita University and Kyushu University were connected each other as the first remote conference. Laparoscopic surgery in Russia is developing technically. Remote education is required to provide Japanese laparoscopic technology. We plan to make a regular visit to Russia 3 times a year, together with remote conference 2 to 3 times a year.
