

HOSPITAL INTRODUCTION: CLINICS & TECHNOLOGY

(Instituto Nacional del Cáncer)

(Dr. Rodney Stock and Cristian Mancilla C.)

Outline

- Hospital profiles and its existing telemedicine set-up, activities and plans
  - introduction of clinics/surgery/endoscopy profiles, medical needs for telemedicine - presented by doctor (3 mins)
  - Hospital Telemedicine resource: staff, internet, equipment set-up, experience, current problems - presented by engineer (3 mins)

Introduction of clinics/surgery/endoscopy profiles

- Place
- Human Resource (clinician)
- Main or flagship services
- Bed Occupancy

medical needs for telemedicine

- Existing telemedicine set-up and activities
- Future plans

Hospital's Telemedicine Resource.

- The components of the National Cancer Institute are two units: informatics & MINSAL technical support.
- National Cancer Institute working on MINSAL communication Network, that are our internet connection provider.
- Equipment set-up :
  - Video conference
    - Policom device.
  - Video conference software
    - SW Policom HDX v3.1.11/RP Desktop v3.8 / group v6.1/ CMA Desktop v5.2.
- Experience
  - With MINSAL Network.
    - O'Higgins
    - Biobio (Victor Ríos Ruiz Hospital )
    - Ñuble (Herminda Martin de Chillan Hospital)

Hospital Telemedicine resource

- current problems
- Expectation

