Kyushu University, Ohashi Campus (Japan), Kyushu University Hospital (Japan)	This event was conducted as an interim report of the medical design project. Regarding the issues of pregnant women's health in Bangladesh, a mission card to raise health awareness and graphics to understand the overall checkup schedule was proposed. For the problems of waiting rooms in the pediatric surgery dept., a product was offered to help keep personal space and visualize waiting conditions. The event was a success, with lively discussions based on detailed ideas by design students.
