

【 Connecting institutions 】

【 Comments 】

Kyushu University, Ito Campus (Japan)
National Research and Innovation Agency, Indonesia (Indonesia),
Indonesian Students Association in Japan Fukuoka Branch (Japan),
NPO Temanhati Fukuoka (Japan)

A symposium about the Indonesia-Japan partnership was held during Asia Week 2024. This symposium encases the long collaboration between Japanese citizens in Fukuoka who care about education in Indonesia and the Indonesian Student Association in Fukuoka in various cultural and charity programs. It was an excellent hybrid event, with a minor technical issue transferring the live musical performance online.

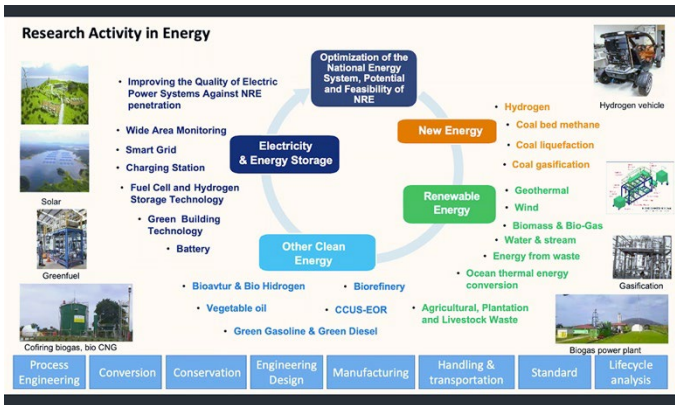

A photo of the main venue

Closing remarks by Prof. Yokota

Picture taken at : Kyushu University, Ito Campus

Picture taken at : Kyushu University, Ito Campus

BSOB (Badan Semi Otonom Beasiswa)
Semi-Autonomous Scholarship Body

- A non-profit organisation based in Japan dedicated to fostering development in Indonesia.
- Funds are channeled to develop education in Indonesia, either through direct financial support for school fees or by aiding in the construction of educational facilities in areas in need.

Funding Source

- Donation from PPIF members
- Sponsorship
- Profit from events, such as ICD (Indonesian Culture Day)
- Participation in cultural markets by selling Indonesian foods and souvenirs

BSOB 2015

A presented slide

A presented slide

Picture taken at : Kyushu University, Ito Campus

Picture taken at : Kyushu University, Ito Campus

Indonesian dance was performed

Mr. Pratama makes a presentation

Picture taken at : Kyushu University, Ito Campus

Picture taken at : Kyushu University, Ito Campus