A celebration was held to mark the 120th anniversary of the establishment of Kyoto Imperial University Fukuoka Medical College, the predecessor of Kyushu University School of Medicine, in 1903. After greetings from President Tatsuro Ishibashi, Faculty of Medicine Dean Koichi Akashi, and Hospital Director Masashi Nakamura, two commemorative lectures, two commemorative symposiums, and three lectures, including medical students, were held. Approximately 250 people participated on the day. At the same time, a public film screening and photo exhibition were held.
