Pacifico Yokohama (Japan), Jawaharlal Institute of Post Graduate Medical Education and Research (JIPMER) (India), Kyushu University Hospital (Japan), Calmett Hospital (Cambodia), Kathmandu Model Hospital (Nepal), Tata Memorial Hospital (India), Mar Sleeva Medicity Palai (India)	We were delighted to host the sixteenth session of our Medical Working Group, which focused on advanced gastrointestinal surgery. The session featured high-quality academic content from reputed institutions. The overall technical quality of the session remained satisfactory, especially given the inclusion of three video lectures. We sincerely thank all participants for their cooperation, engagement, and active participation throughout the session.
