#2051

2025.07.30

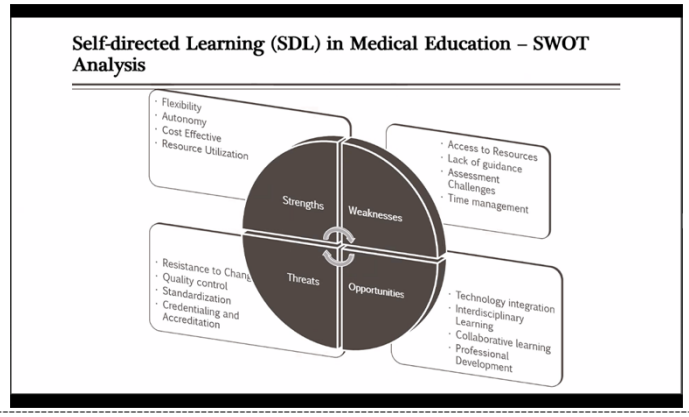

The 60th APAN Meeting -Medical Education 1 -Trends

【 Connecting institutions 】	【 Comments 】
Grand Hyatt Hong Kong (Hong Kong), Burdwan Medical College & Hospital (India), Kyushu University Hospital (Japan), Jhargram Government Medical College (India)	The session covered several key topics in medical education. The main themes were: “Leadership development in medical students through experiential learning”, “Training course effectiveness in postgraduate medical curriculum”, “Identity and self-concept in medical education”, “Curriculum planning using backward design methodology”, “Faculty development for promoting self-directed learning”, and “Ethics and professionalism in medical education”. Key Presenters were multiple faculty members from Burdwan M C & H, along with representatives from Jhargram Gov M C and Sri Balaji Vidyapeeth.

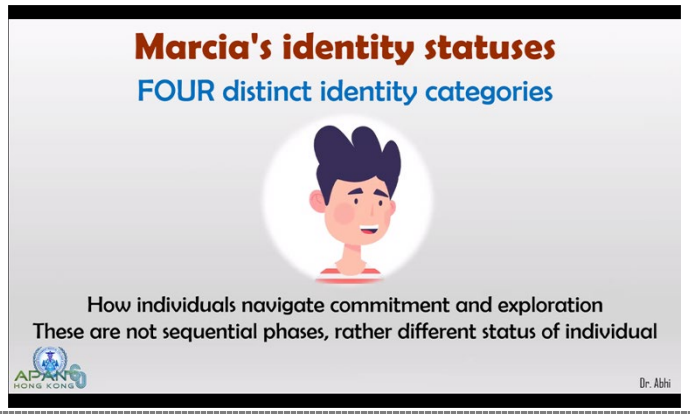

Monitor shows connected sites

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

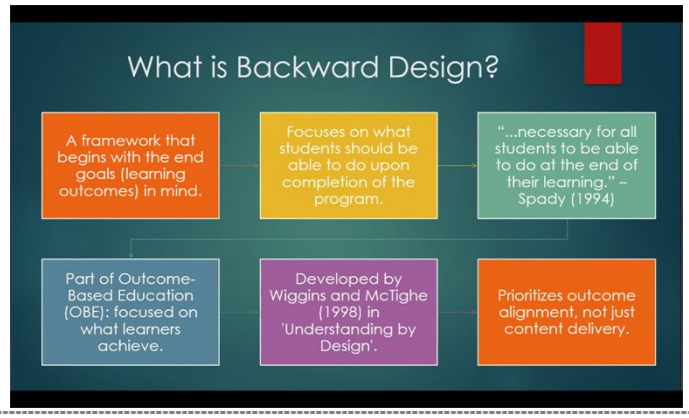

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

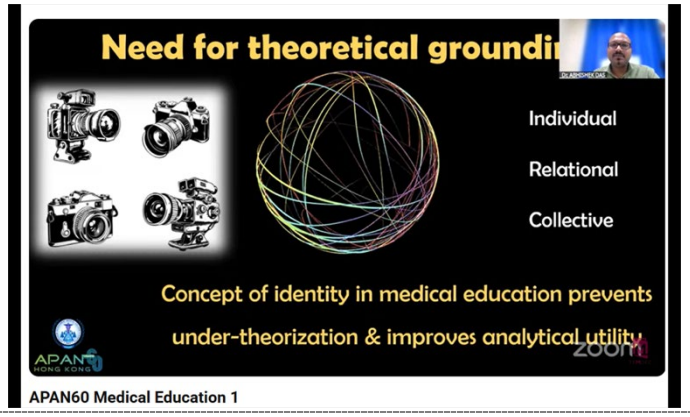

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

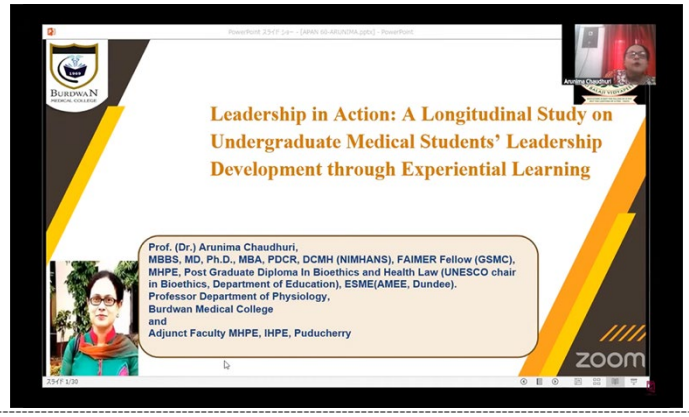

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital