Collaborative Platform in Research and Education on Humanities and Social Sciences Omnibus Session

【 Connecting institutions 】	【 Comments 】
Kyushu University, Ito Campus (Japan), Kyushu University Medical Library (Japan)	This series focuses on individual faculty members in the humanities and social sciences at Kyushu University, aiming to reaffirm the significance of these disciplines and share their value with a wider audience. In the fifteenth session, Professor Ailin Liu from the Faculty of Law was invited to discuss the formation of political thought in Japan, with Professor Kuriko Kudo participating as a dialogue partner, enabling discussion that transcended the boundaries between the humanities and the sciences.
