#2099

2026.01.26

The 61st APAN Meeting -Rural Healthcare

【 Connecting institutions 】	【 Comments 】
Le Meridien Dhaka (Bangladesh), Kathmandu Model Hospital (Nepal), Nepal Research and Education Network(NREN) (Nepal), Kyushu University Hospital (Japan),Kioch Partners of America, K-PALS Inc. (United States), TATA Consultancy Services Main Building office (India), Nepal e-Governance Board (Nepal), Nepware Pvt. Ltd. (Nepal)	The rural health care session was held under the theme of “Digital Transformation in Rural Health Care - Making it Simple”. Speakers were with the variety of background in Digital Health, from home-based care in USA to technical experts in Nepal. Presentations focused on SDGs as indicator for digital health, digital health standards, and digital health economy especially focusing on rural healthcare. A healthy discussion was carried out. Take home message was Digital Transformation in Rural Health Care is truly necessary and should be simplified to easy implementation.

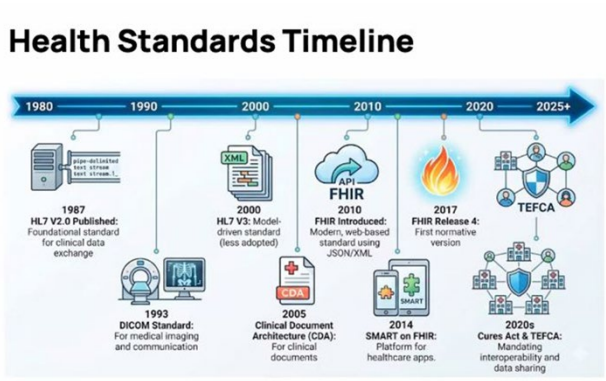

Monitor shows connected sites

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

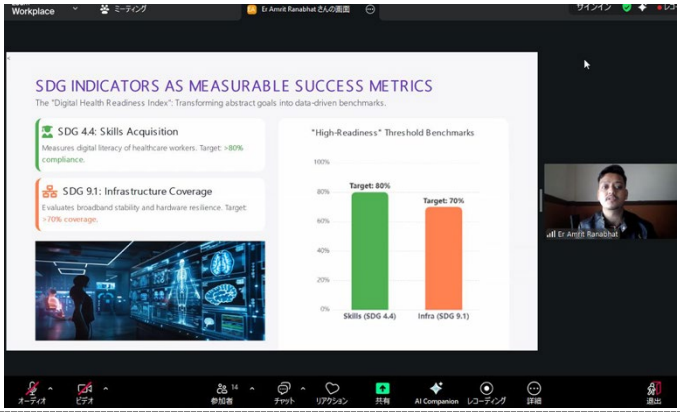

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

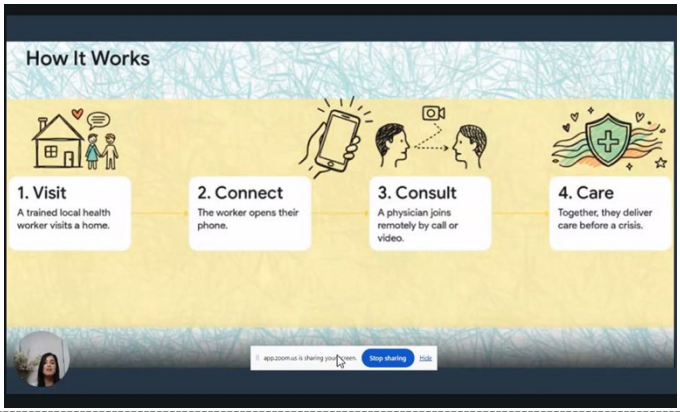

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital