#2103

2026.01.27

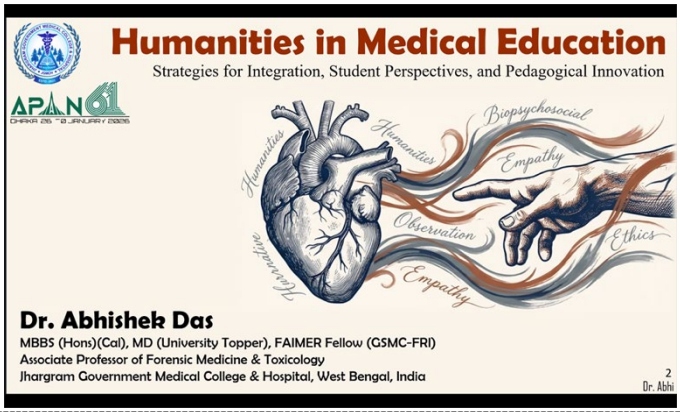

The 61st APAN Meeting -Medical Education

【 Connecting institutions 】	【 Comments 】
Le Meridien Dhaka (Bangladesh), Burdwan Medical College & Hospital (India), Kyushu University Hospital (Japan), Jouf University (Saudi Arabia), Jhargram Government Medical College (India)	There were six presentations (15 minutes each) on Medical Education from Medical Colleges across India and one from Saudi Arabia by senior faculty members. This session highlighted faculty development perspectives and training of Post-Graduate residents on the following topics: medical education technology, Communication skills, Ethics, Humanities in Medical Education, and the Role of students' self-assessment in health professions education.

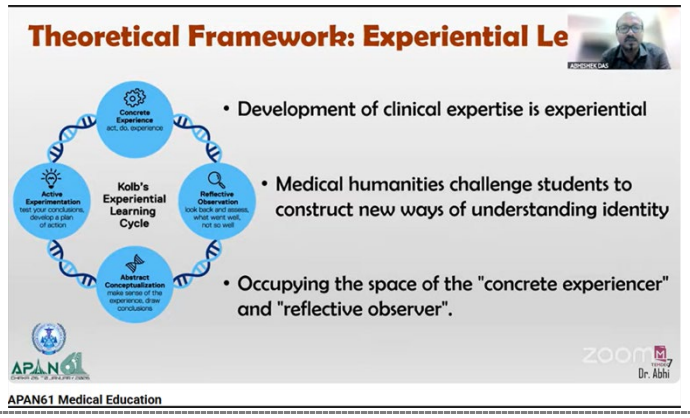

Monitor shows connected sites

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

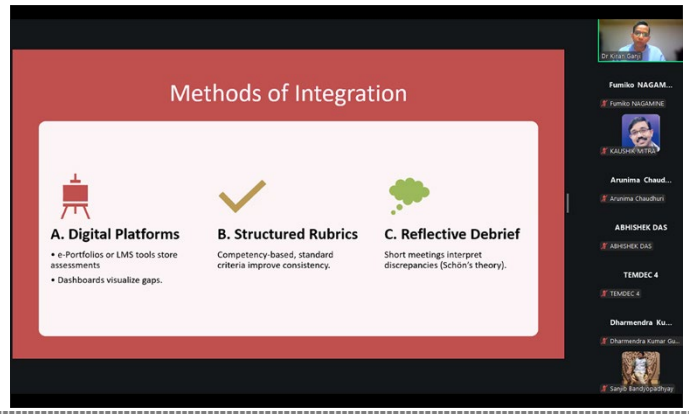

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

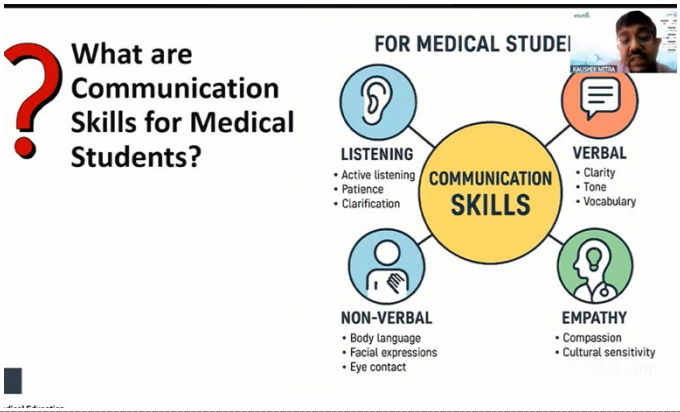

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

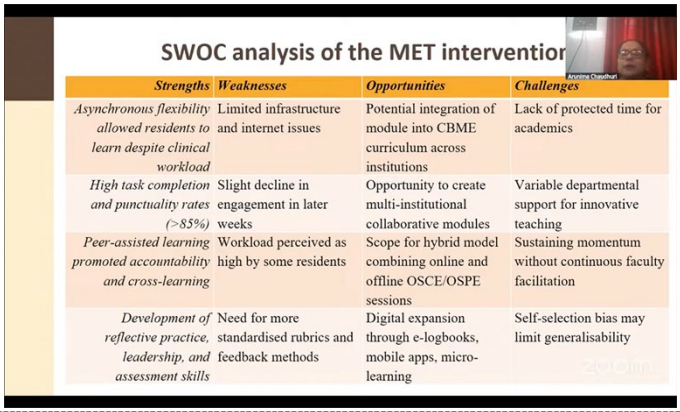

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital