#2104

2026.01.27

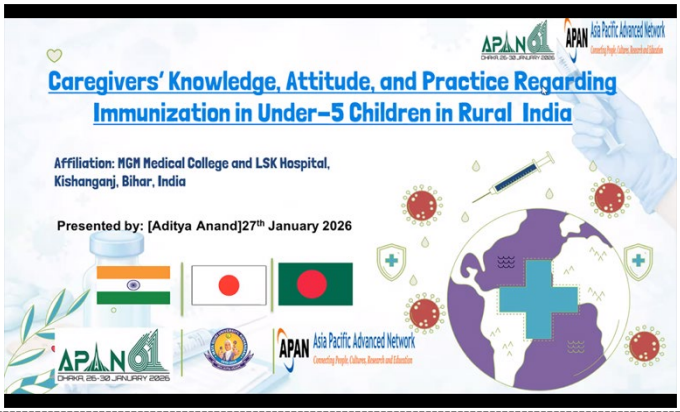

The 61st APAN Meeting -Pathology

【 Connecting institutions 】	【 Comments 】
Le Meridien Dhaka (Bangladesh), Kyushu University Hospital (Japan), Mata Gujri Memorial Medical College, Mata Gujri University (India)	The session was a successful one with discussions on different aspects of patient care in the context of Rural India. The speakers Professors Dipmala Das and Nandita Chattopadhyay along with our students Aditya Anand and Alok Kumar beautifully highlighted how healthcare workers can provide the best possible care in a setting of limited resources and infrastructure. The session was chaired by Prof (Dr) Asitava Deb Roy.

Monitor shows connected sites

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

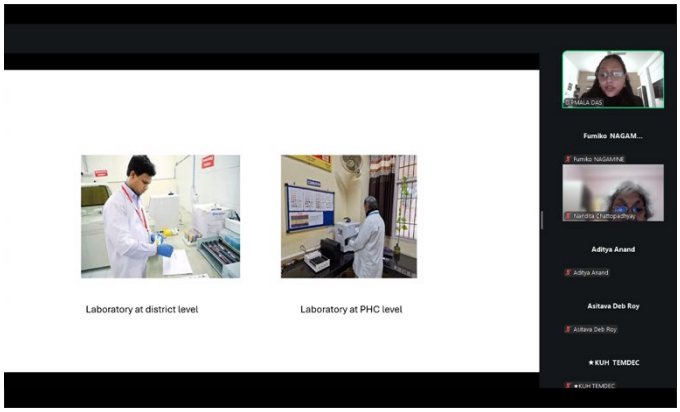

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital