#2108

2026.01.28

The 61st APAN Meeting -Public Health

| 【 Connecting institutions 】 | 【 Comments 】 |
|---|---|
| Le Meridien Dhaka (Bangladesh),Kyushu University Hospital (Japan),Mymensingh Medical College (Bangladesh),University of Science and Technology Chittagong (Bangladesh),Chittagong Medical College (Bangladesh),Jahangirnagar University (Bangladesh) | At the APAN61 Public Health session chaired by Syed Billal Hossain, research was presented on infectious disease surveillance, Ox-LDL in acute myocardial infarction, dental behaviors among smokeless tobacco users, and the mental health of police professionals—combining diverse methodologies with practical relevance. Future work should emphasize clear health policy/ program recommendations, address sample-size limits, and outline steps of implementation or scaling-up in specific areas. |

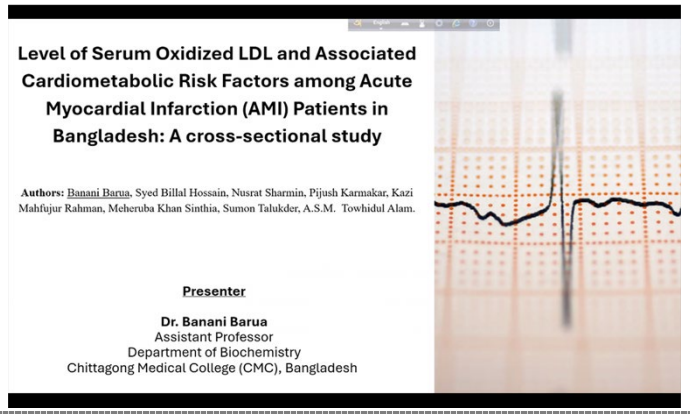

Monitor shows connected sites

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

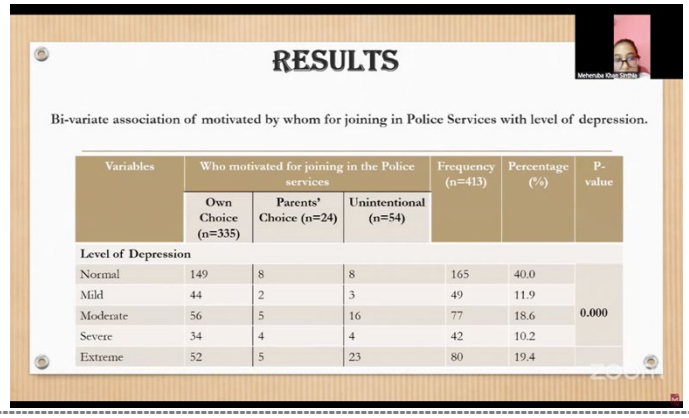

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

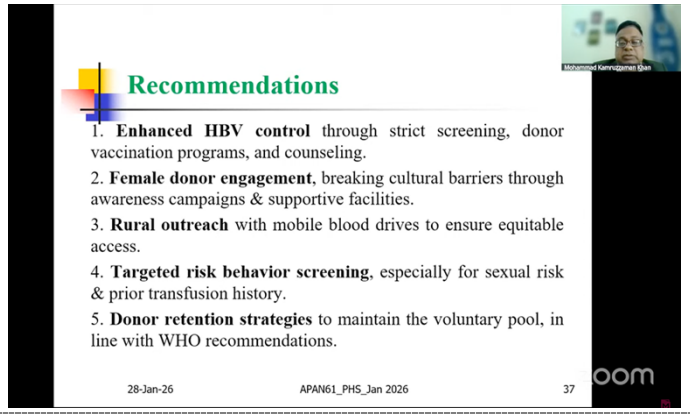

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

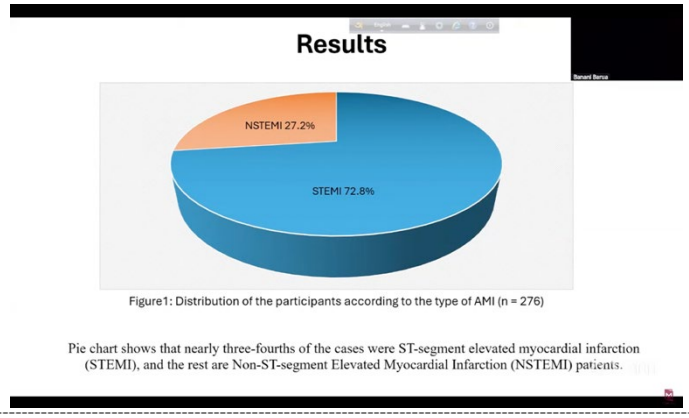

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital

A presentation slide

Picture taken at：Kyushu University Hospital