Event
The 2nd Mexico-Japan Endoscopy Conference

Date
2016.07.01

Venue
Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico (Mexico), Hospital Sharp Mazatlan (Mexico), Kobe University (Japan), Kyushu University Hospital (Japan)

Comments
Prof. Toyonaga lecture about Endoscopic submucosal dissection (ESD) explains:
a) The limitations and problems of conventional EMR;
b) Indications of lower GI ESD;
c) Risk of stricture after ESD;
d) Feasibility and safety of ESD for lower rectal tumors with hemorrhoids;
e) Feasibility and safety of endoscopic submucosal dissection for lesions involving the ileocecal valve;
f) Strategies with Clinical cases and advices.

---

Dr. Toyonaga gives a presentation at endoscopic room, Kobe U. Picture taken at: Kobe University

Dr. Toyonaga (lt.), Kobe University makes a comment. Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital

Presented slide from Kobe University. Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital

Presented endoscopic image from Kobe University. Picture taken at: Universidad Nacional Autonama de Mexico

Teleconference finishing with full of smiles. Picture taken at: Kyushu University Hospital

Snap of attendees at Mexico. Picture taken at: Universidad Nacional Autonama de Mexico